To

The Hon'ble Ms. Justice Rekha M. Doshit, The Chief Justice of the High Court of Judicature at Patna and Her Companion Justices of the said Hon'ble Court.

The humble petition on behalf of the petitioners named above.

Most Respectfully Sheweth:

- 1) That the present writ petition is being preferred for issuance of an appropriate writ in the nature of Mandamus for consideration and promotion in the trained graduate scale taking into consideration the eligibility, suitability and seniority amongst the feeder scales as well as the subsequent prayer of the petitioners for the grant of equal treatment and benefits which has already been granted to the juniors to the petitioners and they are subjected to discriminate by withholding the claim of promotion and for the other necessary relief/reliefs on the basis of the facts and circumstances of this case as stated and enumerated hereinafter.

2) That the substantial questions of law formulated in this writ petition are as follows:-

- I) Whether the authorities have failed to appreciate that the petitioners are entitled for consideration and promotion in the trained graduate scale taking into consideration the eligibility, suitability and seniority in the cadres as well as taking note of facts for consideration and promotion or timely consideration is the fundamental right of the concerned employees?
- II) Whether the authorities have failed to appreciate that the petitioners were appointed much earlier after completing the process as required under the law and they consumed the longer periods of service however, they were not considered for promotion in the trained graduate scale unreasonably and arbitrarily?

III) Whether the concerned authorities have failed to appreciate that the juniors to the petitioners who were appointed and subsequently they were considered and promoted / granted the B.A. Trained scale on 16.07.2012 in pursuance of the direction given by the Hon'ble High Court while disposing the case of Ram Nath Pd. Singh versus the State of Bihar and others decided by the Full Bench reported in 2009(3) PLJR-384?

IV) Whether the respondent authorities have failed to appreciate that in terms of the law is settled that the main criteria for promotion on the seniority is the length of service however, in the case in hands the several persons who are juniors from all the corners including the length of service or entry in job were considered and promoted in the trained graduate scale when they are denied unreasonably and as such the action of the authorities are attracts the right under Articles 14 & 16 to the Constitution of India which deals the right of equity before the law?

- V) Whether the authorities have failed to appreciate that the petitioners had persuaded the concerned authorities by virtue of discrimination and raised the voice before them then the concerned authority had left the issue abundant and compel them to work under the juniors?
- VI) Whether the authorities had failed to appreciate the basic principle of law that the persons appointed earlier are entitled for consideration and promotion earlier and in any view of the matter the juniors cannot surpass the seniority of these petitioners and sit over their heads without any reasonable and valid grounds?
- VII) Whether the authorities are required under the law to consider these candidatures for promotion besides removal the defects , if any, and provides the promotion in the trained graduate scale from the due date when their juniors were granted the promotion as well as consequential benefits also in the same terms and conditions?

VIII) Whether the actions of the concerned authorities are malafide, arbitrary, without jurisdiction as well as abuse of power and the authority due to the wrong and ulterior motives?

IX) Whether the actions of the respondent-authorities are otherwise bad in law and facts?

3) That the petitioners are citizens of India and they are residing within the territorial jurisdiction of the Hon'ble High Court.

4) That it is stated and humbly submitted that the petitioner no. 1 had passed the matriculation examination as back as in the year 1971 from the Bihar School Examination Board, Patna . He improved the qualification of Intermediate of Science in the year 1980, B.sc. in the year 1983 and M.sc. in the year 1990 respectively. It is further submitted that he did the training course in the year 1974. It is relevant to state that he was appointed after completing the process under the law and he was appointment as an Assistant Teacher and submitted the joining which was accepted and allowed to perform the duties and he is rendering the service to the satisfaction of the authority concerned and possess the clean and excellent service records.

Photocopies of testimonials of petitioner no. 5 are being enclosed herewith and marked as Annexure-5 series to this writ petition.

10) That it is stated and humbly submitted that the District Programme Officer, Establishment, Madhepura had issued the memo no. 1579 dated 16.7.12 and promote the large number of persons in the Trained Graduate Scale and provide the benefits attached to the post without considering the eligibility, suitability and seniority of these petitioners and as such the action of the concerned authorities attracts the requirement of natural justice as well as the right of equity granted under Articles 14 & 16 to the Constitution of India.

A photocopy of memo no. 1579 dated 16.7.12 is being enclosed herewith and marked as Annexure-6 to this writ petition.

10) That it is stated and humbly submitted that it was shocked and surprised that although the petitioners were under the zone of consideration on the ground of seniority and length of service however, the authorities has acted in the arbitrary manner and committed the serious error of record while giving the promotion to the juniors by ignoring their claims for promotion although they are senior to promotees from all the corners including the length of service.

11) That it is stated and humbly submitted that the law is quite clear for the purpose of promotion on the length of service is acceptable criteria in the Service Jurisprudence however, the authority concerned has committed the serious error of record and on the facts and law while giving the promotion to the juniors and ignoring the seniority of these petitioners which attracts their rights conferred as the right of equity before the law.

12) That it is stated and humbly submitted that in view of the law is well settled as well as the command of constitution it is crystal clear that the right of equity is the theme of the constitution and no one including the State Govt. has a jurisdiction to ignore / surpass the equity amongst the equal. It is submitted that after consideration of the claim in its totality it appears that the entire exercise is based on the discrimination and as such the concerned authority required under the law for a necessary direction for removal of discrimination amongst the equal and to maintain the equity before the law.

14) That it is stated and humbly submitted that all these petitioners either they improved their qualification before the date of appointment or after taking the necessary permission by the authority of the department. It is relevant to state that once the permission is granted by the competent authority who improved the qualification the successor in the office cannot be put the figures towards the improvement of the qualification when the said qualification improved privately and in the other words as the private candidates. There is no law in land which prohibits the teachers from improving their academic qualifications.

15) That it is stated that although Mr. Bhogendra Sharma, Rajesh Kumar, Krishna Paswan, Sanjay Kumar, Chaturanan Singh, Navin

Kumar Verma, Badri Narayan Yadav are juniors to the petitioners and they were considered and promoted in the trained graduate scale in the said background the concerned authorities are required under the law to consider and grant the promotion of these petitioners for which they are entitled in accordance with law from the actual date when their juniors were granted the promotion and to extend the benefits under the same and similar terms.

16) That the points which are emerges for consideration before the Hon'ble High Court is that whether the authorities have justified to maintain the discrimination amongst the equal while granting the promotion in the trained graduate scale or not when particularly the length of service was completely ignored and the only complete answer of the question is negative and the law did not permits the authorities to violates the right of equity before the law rather they are morally and legally bound to maintain the equity amongst the equals.

17) That it is stated and humbly submitted that in view of the reason as well explained and the close analysis of the case it is just and proper that the concerned authority may be directed to remove the defects and grant the due promotion to the petitioners in the trained graduate scale from the date their juniors were promoted and to extend the benefits attached to the post with the wishes that the seniority of the feeder scale may be maintained.

18) That it is stated and humbly submitted that in view of the reason as well explained and the close analysis of the case it is just and proper that the writ petition may be allowed and the relief as sought for under paragraph no. 1 to the writ petition may be granted in favour of these petitioners for which they are entitled in accordance with law.

19) That the writ petitioners have no other efficacious and / or alternative remedy except to move this Hon'ble Court in writ jurisdiction which would be more adequate and proper.

20.19) That the writ petitioners have not moved this Hon'ble Court, earlier, for the grant of relief as mentioned in paragraph No.1 to this writ petition.

It is accordingly prayed that Your Lordships may graciously be pleased to admit this application issue RULE NISI calling upon the respondents to show cause as to why the reliefs prayed for in paragraph No.

1 be not granted and after return of the Rule and hearing the parties be further graciously pleased to make the RULE ABSOLUTE.

AND/OR

Pass such other order or orders as Your Lordship deem fit and proper.

And for this these petitioners shall ever pray.
